A Season to be Thankful

As the seasons change and we edge ever closer to the end of the year, many of us take the time to reflect on the past year and what we are thankful for.

I am thankful for being welcomed by this friendly and inviting community and for the trust that the city council has put in me. I am deeply grateful for the talented staff who are passionate about their community and eager to serve.

I am also thankful for the support of my family and friends through times of transition and uncertainty. It is my hope that each of you will take a few moments to reflect on what you are thankful for and what your community means to you.

I wish you all a safe and happy Thanksgiving.
